BIOGRAPHY

Kyle is an associate attorney practicing in the firm's Litigation Section. He is licensed to practice before all Texas state courts and in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas.

Prior to joining the firm, Kyle practiced law in Houston focusing on serving clients in personal injury, property damage, and product defect cases. Since moving to Midland and joining the firm, Kyle brings this experience and his focus on finding client driven solutions to his clients in Midland.

AREAS OF CONCENTRATION

Kyle' practice primarily consists of general commercial litigation, personal injury/insurance defense, business disputes, construction disputes, contract disputes, governmental entity defense, and oil and gas disputes. He has represented individuals, large and small corporate clients, and insurance carriers and their insureds on various matters including trademark infringement, pipeline failures, property damage, rig blowouts, tractor-trailer accidents, operating agreements and master service agreements, product defects, catastrophic injuries/fatalities, collection matters, commercial tort/DTPA lawsuits, and fiduciary duty and non-complete matters. Kyle has tried several of these matters to juries, resulting in favorable verdicts for his clients. Kyle also assists senior litigation attorneys with research, drafting pleadings, motions and discovery, deposition preparation, and the day-to-day management of complex cases.
